

MUGGLES MAKE MAGIC AT URBAN PREP'S HARRY POTTER FILM SCREENING AND RECEPTION

On November 18, 2010 over 350 wizards, witches and Muggles gathered for an advance private screening of Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows, Part 1 to benefit Urban Prep. After viewing the film at Navy Pier's IMAX Theater, guests enjoyed a reception sponsored by Harry Caray's Tavern. The amazing spread of food at the reception included Butter-Beer reminiscent of The Leaky Cauldron's special brew, and chocolate frogs straight from Honeydukes Sweets Shop.

The event raised more than $25,000 to support Urban Prep's Study UP! and UP To & Through College programs.

Guests donned their best magical attire including Hogwarts robes, Gryffindor ties and scarves, Harry Potter spectacles and of course, wands as they mingled with students from Urban Prep's three campuses. Guests also posed for photos on the red carpet prior to the start of the film.

The event received coverage on NBC-5 Chicago, Fox News Chicago and in the Chicago Sun-Times, as well as the wizarding world's own Daily Prophet.

Urban Prep Academies appreciates the event sponsors (The duBuclet Family, Harry Caray's, IMAX Theaters, MB Real Estate, NBC-5 Chicago, Northern Trust, The Private Bank) as well as all the people who supported the event. Pictures from the screening and reception can be viewed at www.urbanprep.org.
